

Methodological remarks, concepts, definitions

The scope of health services is included in the Act LXXXIII of 1997 on the benefits of the compulsory health insurance and the Government Order 217/1997 (XII.1.) regulating the implementation of this act.

Spa services: including the data of other type of medical treatment as well (health swim therapy for groups under the age of 18 as other type of medical treatment aimed at rehabilitation).

Ledger data: the expenses accounted financially from 1 January to 31 December of the given year.

Social insurance subsidies excluding the amount of subsidy reimbursed by the central and local governmental budget for public health care purposes.