

Methodological remarks, concepts, definitions

Source of data: International Affairs and Entitlements Registry Department of NHIFA

The enumeration of insurees and persons entitled to health care benefits are included in the Act LXXX of 1997 on people entitled to social insurance service and private pension as well as the coverage of these services.

Insurees

Insuree: a person may obtain the right - in case of satisfying other conditions defined in the act - to all services of the social insurance (health and pension insurance benefits).

Employee: who is not self-employed person or member of company and is employed with the obligation of health insurance contribution.

Self-employed person: natural person who is including entrepreneurial register. Private persons with certifications entitling to practice veterinary activity, private pharmacist activity, social attendants in farms and villages, private persons possessing certificate entitling to provide social services. Attorneys, European community jurists, private patent attorneys, notaries who are not member of any notary's office and autonomous bailiffs who are not member of any bailiff's office under the scope of Act on lawyers.

Member of company: the member of limited partnership, unlimited partnership, limited liability company, public-service corporate, joint enterprise, federation as well European economical coalition who takes part personally in the activity if he/she takes part in their work personally (including the period the company operates as a preliminary company), but not on the basis of employment or commission (legal relation of membership). The member of patent attorney corporation, patent attorney office, if he/she takes part in their work personally. The member of law office, notary's office, bailiff office, driving instructors working party or tutorial working party and personal business.

The detailed enumeration of insurees is included in the subsection 1-2 of section 5 of the Act LXXX of 1997.